

STINGER SPORTS

February 11, 1985

NORMAN LEADS BASKETBALL STINGERS

Craig Norman pumped in a career high 42 points last Friday night at Concordia to lead the first place Stingers to a convincing 97-70 rout of the U.Q.T.R. Patriotes. Norman scored 23 points in the opening twenty minutes as Concordia took a commanding eighteen point lead into the locker room.

The win improved the Stingers' Q.U.A.A. record to 7-1 giving them a 1½ game lead over second place McGill. Concordia will be at home this Friday night (February 15) at 8:00 pm when the Bishop's Gaiters will provide the opposition. The game will be preceded by a women's game between the same two schools.

LADY STINGERS HOST MCGILL

In women's basketball the Lady Stingers will host the McGill Martlets Wednesday, February 13th at 8:00 pm in a game that is sure to decide first place in the Q.U.A.A. The two schools have split two league games to date with each posting a home court win. Concordia goes into the important contest coming off an impressive 61-50 victory over the Laval Rouge et Or on Sunday afternoon in the provincial capital. The Stingers will then host the Bishop's Lady Gaiters on Friday, February 15th at 6:30 pm in the first game of a basketball doubleheader.

- 30 -